THE NATURAL HISTORY OF BRIDES.

We have been favored with the natural histories of man, the birds and beasts, of the world, but no one has yet essayed the history of that indispensable creature, the bride. We propose in this article to attempt to show how the vacuum caused by the shortcomings of authors may be supplied by some enterprising Bohemian.

A bride is the culmination of a mother's anxiety and the commencement of a husband's serious reflections. A mother looks upon her daughter arrayed as a bride, as an arrow shot from her household quiver at that butt of female archery, man; and, if the arrow has made a fair hit, is prone to chuckle over the shot as showing forth her superior matronly skill. If, on the contrary, the success is doubtful, then the mother, like a bad archer, blames the arrow, the luck, any thing, indeed, but her own bad management.

Brides are divided into numerous classes. For example: sentimental brides, who marry for love; speculative brides, who marry for money; anxious brides, who marry for the sake of being married; accommodating brides, who marry because their lovers asked them to marry; unresisting brides, who marry because their friends desire them to marry; inquisitive brides, who marry for curiosity, and invalid brides, who marry to restore their health.

Sentimental brides are the most numerous, but not the most happy of the orange-wreathed tribe. They are generally young creatures, who revel in poetical dreams connected with the wearer of a love of a mustache, or the possessor of a handsome nose, or expressive eyes, or an animated doll, who can make pretty little speeches, graceful bows, or sing a pretty little song. She takes great pride unto herself because she married Charlie for his own dear self, and not for his surroundings—unaware that a man's position in society, his friends, and even his wealth or poverty is as much a part of himself total as the curl of his hair, the song he sings, the strut he affects, or even his education. She generally finds, when the song is less brilliantly sung, the mustache requires Christadora, the head a wig, and the poetical speeches are turned into matter-of-fact imperatives, that the varnish is rubbed off, the gloss removed, and Charlie is not the man he used to be.

The money bride has made herself an article of merchandize, and is to be valued according to the price she obtains for herself. She belongs to every condition of society, from her who marries for social position, horses and carriages, diamonds, houses and a bank account, to the work-girl who marries a one room home, and the privilege of only half starving on her husband's petty weekly pittance. She generally reaches the conclusion that she has sold herself too cheap.

The health-seeking bride looks on the marriage service as a medical prescription, the parson as a doctor, and the husband as the bolus administered for her ills—a blue-pill that must be swallowed, however nauseous. She knows that she is traveling on the road to death, yet clinging to life, endeavors to throw her burden on her lord. Flying from the embraces of the worm, she is compelled to accept those of the bridegroom. She merely prefers to an earthly dwelling, the marriage-chamber to the narrow house appointed for all living. The honeymoon shines through apothecary bottles, and the epithalmium is coughed in wheezy periods.

The purchasing bride is generally an old maid or widow, who despairing of being courted for her own sake, seeks a husband through the medium of her pecuniary charms. She generally lets every one know, after marriage, that she keeps the purse-strings in her own hands, and the young man—for this class generally succeded in obtaining young men—whom she had succeeded in entrapping is highly and everlastingly indebted to her. The experience of such is usually the conclusion that they have paid too dearly for their whistle.

The husband desiring bride is, perhaps, the most composed of all brides, the least enthusiastic, and the most likely to be happy. She marries because it is instinct with her, not because she is particularly in love. So she is not so apt to be troubled with the pangs of jealously, or to suffer from disappointment, when she discovers that the bridegroom is not much better than the average of men after all. She goes through the days of courtship as a matter of course; wonders at the whims and caprices of sentimental girls; receives and accepts the offer of marriage as a matter of course; dons the bridal attire, and goes through the whole formula of wedding, ceremonies and unceremonies, as a matter of course; performs all the duties, and submits to all the little vexations of married life as a matter of course; lives a serene, orderly and quiet life, and dies respected and regretted by all who knew her, as a matter of course.

We give the above few cases as samples of what might be done in the matter of writing up a natural history of brides. Each particular class could be elaborated to the extent of at least one chapter. Of course, with our limited space, we can only refer to a few cases, and that in very brief terms. We hope some writer possessing sufficient ability may take the matter up, and give us a work upon the subject.

THE MYSTERIOUS HAND.

Of all the mental infirmities of my fellow-beings, there are none that I am less inclined to laugh at, and, in fact, more disposed to respect, than a belief in apparitions and a fear of the supernatural; and one reason is, that although a decided skeptic in those matters, I have never been able entirely to divest myself of the superstitions of my youth; and another, that even at an advanced age, I have been placed in situations, both at home and abroad, where reason has been prostrated, for a time, before what seemed the most appaling realities, and I have experienced all the terrors of my childhood revived with undiminished power—the groundlessness of my fear only being made manifest by some desperate effort of courage, or the most patient subsequent investigation. Despite the march of intellect, rapid as it is, such a belief will always more or less prevail; and I am not sorry that it should; for besides the poetry of the thing, I have always been of opinion that it has a beneficial effect at least if not a religious one, upon the credulous and thoughtless, by impressing upon them, if nothing else will, the absolute certainty of a future state, between which and the present spirits must be considered by them as the messenger and connecting link; and, by consequence, lead them, through their fears, to abstain from many sins in which they might otherwise indulge. Be this as it may, there are many things that occur out of the common course of events, having so much the appearance of the supernatural, that if not rationally accounted for, will produce the most superstitious effects upon the strongest minds. Out of several instances that have occurred under my own immediate observation, the following will probably be deemed not uninteresding by the lovers of the mysterious.

"That column of true majesty in man,"

Many years ago, I was awakened one night from an unquiet sleep by a feeling of acute pain, and a disagreeable thrilling throughout my whole frame, with the exception of my fore-head, which felt singularly chilly, and as if pressed upon by a dull, cold weight. I became strangely alarmed; and remained for several minutes immovable, and at a loss what to think. After several ineffectual attempts to feel whether there was any object of terror near, my hand at length encountered and fell trembling and powerless upon another hand—a strange, motionless, cold, clammy hand! My flesh crept upon my bones—my hair felt like writhing needles on my head—an icy perspiration started out from every pore of my body. I made a violent attempt to scream; my tongue, however, clove to the roof of my mouth, and shutting my eyes, I gave myself up to despair. But despair, however it may for a time remain inactive, hath its energies—energies which nothing short of hopelessness can arouse; and, mustering my resuscitated powers, I struggled to remove the horrid hand, for I felt it palpably, in all its cold reality, within mine, and, giving a long and piercing shriek, fell exhausted on my pillow and fainted. On coming again to myself, I found the bed surrounded by the whole house-hold, with lights and various weapons of defence; and when, to their hasty inquiries, I shudderingly answered that a strange and icy hand, the hand of death, was beside me, and had been upon my forehead, an instantaneous roar of laughter burst upon my astonished senses. Starting up, I looked round, and found that a stoppage in the circulation of the blood had deadened my left arm, upon which I had been lying, and that the hand, the awful and mysterious hand that had occasioned all my terror, was my own!

SYDNEY SMITH'S COMMON SENSE.

Never give way to melancholy; resist it steadily, for the habit will encroach. I once gave a lady two and twenty receipts against melancholy. One was a bright fire; another to remember all the pleasant things said to and of her; another to keep a box of sugar plums on the chimney-piece, and a kettle simmering on the hob.

Never teach false morality. How exquisitely absurd to tell girls that beauty is of no value—dress of no use! Beauty is of value; her whole prospects and happiness in life may often depend on a new gown or a becoming bonnet, and if she has five grains of common sense, she will find it out. The great thing is to teach her their just value, and that there must be something better under the bonnet than a pretty face for real happiness. But never sacrifice truth.

I am convinced digestion is the great secret of life; and that character, talents, virtues and qualities are powerfully affected by beef, mutton, pie-crust and rich soups. I have often thought I could feed or starve men into many virtues and vices, and affect them more powerfully with the instruments of cookery than Timotheus could do formerly with his lyre.

Railway Official.—You'd better not smoke, sir.

Railway Official (indignantly).—But you shan't smoke sir.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

One hundred years ago there was not a single white man in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois territories. Then, what is now the most flourishing part of America, was as little known as the mountains of the moon. It was not until 1769 that the hunter of Kentucky, the gallant Boone, left his home in North Carolina to become the first settler of Kentucky; the first pioneer of Ohio did not settle till twenty years afterwards.

A hundred years ago Canada belonged to France, and the whole population of the United States did not exceed a million and a half.

A hundred years ago the great Frederick of Prussia was performing those exploits which have made him immortal in military annals, and with his monarchy was sustaining a single-handed contest with Russia, Austria and France, the three great powers of Europe combined.

A hundred years ago the United States were the most loyal people of the British Empire, and on the political horizon no speck indicated the struggle which within a score of years thereafter established the great republic of the world.

A hundred years ago there were but four newspapers in America—with a combined circulation not exceeding 2,000. Steam engines and cylinder presses had not been imagined, and the railroads and telegraphs had not entered the remotest conception of man.

When we look back at it through the vista of history, we find that the century which has passed has been allotted to more important events in their bearing upon the happiness of the world than almost any other event that has happened since the creation.

A hundred years hence, who can foretell our developments and the nation's?

MORAL COURAGE IN EVERY DAY LIFE.—Have the courage to discharge a debt while you have the money in your pocket.

Have the courage to do without that which you do not need, however much your eyes may covet it.

Have the courage to speak your mind when it is necessary to do so, and to hold your tongue when it is prudent you should do so.

Have the courage to speak to a friend in a "seedy" coat, even though you are in company with a rich one, and richly attired.

Have the courage to make a will and a just one.

Have the courage to tell a poor relative you will not lend him your money.

Have the courage to "cut the most agreeable acquaintance you have when you are convinced that he lacks principle. "A friend should bear with a friend's infirmities," but not with his vices.

Have the courage to show your respect for honesty in whatever guise it appears; and your contempt for dishonest publicity, by whomsoever exhibited.

Have the courage to wear your old clothes until you can pay for new ones.

Have the courage to obey your Maker, at the risk of being ridiculed by man.

Have the courage to prefer comfort and propriety to fashion in all things.

Have the courage to acknowledge your ignorance rather than seek credit for knowledge under false pretences.

Have the courage to provide entertainment for your friends within your means—not beyond.

A NEW YORK correspondent of the Albany Argus relates that a handsome orphan work girl had been for some time courted by a journeyman hatter. One day she pressed him to marry, as she had received distespectful proposals from a young lawyer. "There is my hand," said she, "marry me directly." The lover, highly indignant at the attorney, was too glad to obey the direction. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride. The evening before the wedding, however, the bridegroom told Mary Elizabeth that he had a secret to tell. He was not a journeyman hatter, but was one of the richest men in the city of Boston, and said he would take her the next day to the beautiful country seat in the suburbs of the modern Athens which he had inherited from his father and mother, for he, indeed, was an orphan like his bride, Mary Elizabeth. He had seen her at Barnum's Museum, and resolved to make her his own when convinced of her worthiness.

WE have often heard of affectionate husbands but here is one that surpasses all.

While Gen. Curtis' command was marching along the southern slope of the Boston range of mountains, in Arkansas, the advance met a man driving a cart with one ox to drive the same. The man seemed to be in great agony, weeping over the remains of his better half which lay in the cart, dead. One of the men accosted him thus:

"My good man what are you crying about?"

"Oh! she's dead, she's dead, and she was such a good woman," was the sobbing reply.

"Well, what was she good for?" asked the hard-hearted soldier.

"Oh! for scolding, swearing, fighting and baking flap-jacks—she couldn't be beat in Arkansas."

ONLY eleven newspapers are now published in Mexico.

A GERMAN advertised that he had an organ that would play any tune out of an enumerated set at the command of any one of the audience. This made a noise at the time, and puzzled all the conjurers and philosophers of the place. The organ was placed on the table, with its back against the wall, the company were invited to examine it, then ask for a tune, which was immediately played; and if any one desired it to stop, it was instantly silent. This went on for a long time, and the ingenious inventor was making a rapid fortune, and the secret would have been buried with him had he not behaved most inharmoniously toward his loving wife one day, just before the performance commenced. The room was crowded as usual, a tune was called for, but not a note was heard. The owner became uneasy, and said in a soothing coaxing manner, "Do play my goot organs." Still not a sound was heard. He got out of patience, and threatened to smash the instrument to pieces, when a hoarse female voice was heard to growl out, "Ay, do preak de organs as you proke my head dis morning!" This was too much for the choleric German, he took a chair and gave the instrument such a knock that he drove it through a paper partition in the wall, carrying with it another organ which had been placed close at the back of the sham one, at which sat the obstinate grinder—his wife.

THE DOG DOCTOR'S SECRET.—Good food, dainties, and want of exercise, are the destruction of parlor dogs. They become fat with increasing age, and contract various diseases. At last the day comes when a dose of prusic acid must finish the business, or that a medical practitioner must be called in, who will, by a severe regimen restore the dog's health and appetite. An exkennel man in our neighborhood made a very comfortable income by this peculiar line of practice. He divulged the secret of his system a few days before his dissolution to the estimable clergyman of the parish." "I always tied 'em," said this canine Abernathy, "to a crab tree at the end of my garden, for a week, and gave 'em nothing but water. When I fetched 'em from their mistresses they refused to eat what I should have been glad to get, and when they went back they would eat what I couldn't have touched. I've had some dogs twice or even three times a year, but I always cured 'em at last. One of them was as good as three pounds a year to me. I was terrible fond of him, but he never took to me; and when he saw me coming for his [illegible] would waddle away and howl enough to wake the dead. Dogs havn't got no gratitude."—Field.

NEVER SAW A WOMAN.—Meadow's History of the Chinese lately published in London, in a chapter on Love, has the following:

'A Chinese, who had been disappointed in marriage and had grievously suffered through women in many other ways, retired with his infant son to the peaks of a mountain range in Kweichoo, to a spot quite inaccessible to little footed Chinese women. He trained the boy to worship the Gods, and stand in awe and abhorrence of the devils; but he never mentioned women to him, always descending the mountain alone to buy food. At length, however, the infirmities of age compelled him to take the young man with him to carry the heavy bag of rice. As they were leaving the market town together, the son suddenly stopped short, and, pointing to three approaching objects, cried,

'Father, what are these things? Look! look! what are they?

'The father answered with the peremptory order,

'Turn away your head; they are devils!"

'The son, in some alarm, turned away noticing that the evil things were gazing at him with surprise from behind their fans. He walked to the mountain in silence, ate no supper, and from that day lost his appetite and was afflicted with melancholy.—For some time his puzzled and anxious parent could get no satisfactory answer to his inquiries, but at length the young man burst out crying with inexplicable pain, 'Oh, father, that tallest devil! that tallest devil!'

A CAUTIOUS YOUTH.—A widow lady in Scotland had an only son. On him she had expended much to enable him to acquire an education. He was absent from home for a long time, attending school. Having completed his course of studies, he returned to his good old mother.

"Come, John," said she on the night of his arrival home, and when they were about making preparations to retire, "youv'e been a long time away from me, my son, and have studied much. I know ye are a good lad, but I have never heard ye pray. Try it, John; for ye surely must now know how, with all the learning ye have got."

"Accordingly John complied—made a long, humble, and as he supposed, satisfactory acknowledgment of his sins and general unworthiness, and of his indebtedness, to his Maker."

"Well, mother, how did it suit ye?"

"Pretty well—pretty well, John," replied the old lady; "but why didna ye gie the old de'il a slap or two?"

"Ah!" said John, "not I—not I; for you know, mither, there's none of us knows whose hands we may sometimes fall into!"

AN EXTINCT RACE.—One of the most remarkable races that ever inhabited the earth is now extinct. They were known as the Guanches, and were the aborigines of the Canary Islands. In the sixteenth century, pestilence, slavery, and the cruelty of the Spaniards succeeded in totally exterminating them. They are described as having been gigantic in stature, but of a singularly mild and a gentle nature. Their food consisted of barley, wheat, and goats milk, and their agriculture was of the rudest kind. They had a religion which taught them of a future state of rewards and punishments after death, and of good and evil spirits. They regarded the volcano of Teneriffe as a punishment for the bad. The bodies of their dead were carefully embalmed and deposited in catacombs, which still continue to be an object of curiosity to those who visit the islands. Their marriage rites were very solemn, and before engaging in them, the brides were fattened on milk. At the present day these strange people are totally extinct.

WOULDN'T GIVE IN.—An English clergyman relates the following amusing anecdote:

The most singular reply I ever listened to was made to me last summer, upon the occasion of our school feast by a carter boy of about fourteen. Everybody had exhibited a tolerable appetite, but this boy, had eaten to repletion, so that when I saw him suddenly turn very pale, and attempt to rise from the table, I began to fear he had made himself ill.

"What's the matter, my good boy?" inquired I, while a sympathizing throng of philanthropic ladies, who had been acting as waiters upon the company gathered around the sufferer. Do you feel unwell?"

"My stomach aches, sir," replied the boy with great distinctness.

"Dear me," said I (almost suffocated with my endeavors to suppress laughter,) "don't you think you had better go home?"

"No, no, sir," replied the lad with determination. "It will ache a precious sight more afore I ha' done wi' him."

And I am bound to say that he did not submit to the threatened dictation, but devoured two slices of cold pudding in addition to his previous supplies, as well as an enormous bunch of bread and cheese.

PROFIT AND LOSS.—A Western candidate for Congress, who had a large and well-stocked farm, was annoyed at the almost nightly disappearance from his premises of a number of hogs. A vigilant watch enabled him to detect the thief, who proved to be a neighbor, and a warm political friend of the candidate—one, in fact, upon whose assistance he greatly relied in the coming canvass. He disliked to lose his support, and he disliked more the idea of losing his hogs; so he made up his mind to be frank with the thief; and try to save, in more senses than one, his bacon. He went at once to his neighbor, told him what he had ascertained; expressed his desire not to make a public exposure, and said: "Now I make this proposition—if you will let my hogs alone in future, I will not only say nothing of the past, but when I kill in the fall, I'll put into your cellar five barrels of as good pork as I make." The fellow reflected a moment, and replied: "Well 'Squire, that's a fair proposition, any how and seeing as it's you, I'll do it; but I vow I believe I shall lose pork by the operation."

APPLICATION OF KNOWLEDGE.—A very valuable pocket-knife was once dropped into a twenty-feet well, half full of water.

"How shall we get it out? Shall we have to draw the water from the well?" The writer proposed to use a strong horse shoe magnet, near by, suspended by a cord. "But we can't see where to lower the magnet so as to touch the knife." "Throw the sun's rays down on the bottom of the well by a looking-glass," was the second answer. It was done, the knife rendered visible from the top of the well, the magnet came into contact, and the knife brought up—all being accomplished in a minute of time.

THE London Review says: "Mr. Boucicault next season will be in excelsis. It is a hard matter even for a skillful gymnast to ride four horses at once, but what is that to inspiring or conducting four London theaters. Perhaps the most difficult task for a modest playwright was to demand £20,000 for the four lobster-salad plays, with situations original and selected, which were, and it is said are, to be furnished for these four theaters. This Mr. Boucicault has accomplished."

An instance of the ruling passion strong in death is thus related of old Cook, who was known as a miser, and had amassed a large fortune. On his death-bed, when the last gasp was approaching, a tallow candle was burning upon the stand, and a flickering flame in the fire-place. Suddenly he called to his son, saying—

"Woodbury, come here."

The son approached the bed-side, when the old man whispered—

"Woodbury, blow out that candle; tallow's most as dear as butter."

In Paris they are preparing "Grasshopper Pancakes," fried in rum, and in Egypt they have "Locust Fritters," steeped in rum before frying, and then done up brown in butter. These are royal dishes for royal appetites.

BOYS USING TOBACCO.—A strong and sensible writer says a good, sharp thing, and a true one, too, for boys who use tobacco. It has utterly ruined thousands of boys. It tends to softening and weakening of the bones, and it greatly injures the brain, the spinal marrow and the whole nervous fluid. A boy who smokes early and frequently, or in any way uses large quantities of tobacco, is never known to make a man of much energy, and generally lacks muscular and physical as well as mental power. We would particularly warn boys who want to be anything in the world, to shun tobacco as a most baneful poison. It injures the teeth. It produces an unhealthy state of the throat and lungs, hurts the stomach and blasts the brain and nerves.

HOW TO KEEP POOR.—There is no workingman but would rejoice to have the way pointed out by which he might honestly attain riches. No one would thank us for a prescription to insure poverty, and yet there is many a man who keeps himself poor by indulging in the following: two glasses of ale a day at ten cents, seventy-three dollars; three cigars, one after each meal, one hundred and nine dollars and fifty cents; board for a big dog, thirty dollars—all in one year, two hundred and twelve dollars and fifty cents—sufficient to buy six barrels of flour, one barrel of sugar, one sack of coffee, a good coat, a respectable dress, a frock for the baby, and a half dozen pairs of shoes. If you don't believe it, workingman, figure for yourself.

A GOOD CUSTOM.—It was the custom in Massachusetts, in early times, as we learn from Lewis' History of Lynn, for a person to go about the meeting houses, during divine service, and wake the sleepers. "He bore a long wand, on one end of which was a ball and on the other a fox tail. When he observed the men asleep, he rapped them on the head with a knob, and roused the slumbering sensibilities of the ladies by drawing the brush lightly across their faces."

A PLAIN-SPOKEN Western preacher delivered the following from his desk: "I would announce to the congregation that, probably by mistake, there was left at this meeting house, this morning, a small cotton umbrella, much damaged, by time and wear, and exceedingly pale in color, in place whereof was taken a very large silk umbrella, of great beauty. Blunders of this sort, brethren and sisters, are getting a little too common."

A CHILD'S MEMORY.—"Well, my child," said a stern father to a little daughter, after church, "what do you remember of all the preacher said?"

"Nothing, sir," was the timid reply.

"Nothing!" said he severely; "now, remember, the next time you tell me something he says, or you must stay away from church."

The next Sunday she came home, her eyes all excitement:

"I remember something," said she.

"Ah, very glad of it," replied the father; "what did he say?"

"He said, pa," cried she delightedly, "a collection will now be taken up!"

JONES, while lately engaged in splitting wood, struck a false blow, causing the stick to fly up. It struck him on the jaw and knocked out a front tooth.

"Ah," said Bill, meeting him soon after, "you have had a dental operation performed, I see."

"Yes," replied the other, "ax-idental."

I CLASPED her tiny hand in mine; I clasped her beauteous form; I vowed to shield her from the wind, and from the world's cold storm. She set her beauteous eyes on me, the tears did wildly flow: and with her little lips she said, "Confound you, let me go."

Dresses still trail behind, or rather tunics trail, for the dress has dwindled to a tunic, and the petticoat has arisen to the dignity of a dress. Often the dress will be a simple muslin, looped up with ribbons, while the petticoat will be of rich silk exquisitely embroidered.

Naturalists have remarked that the squirrel is continually chatting to his fellow-squirrels in the woods. This we have every reason to suppose, arises from that animal's love of gossip, as he is notoriously one of the greatest tail bearers among his tribe.

"Married couples resemble a pair of shears," says Sidney Smith; "so joined that they cannot be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing any one who comes between them."

"The divine right of beauty," says Junius, "is the only divine right a man can acknowledge, and a pretty woman the only tyrant he is not authorized to resist."

No man or woman ever performed an act of duty in accordance with the convictions of truth, who did not feel the reward of "well done, good and faithful servant."

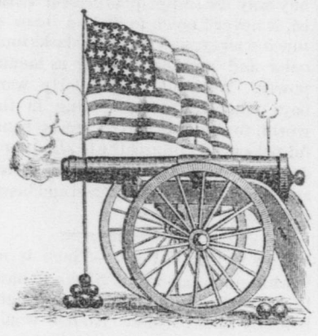
BEDFORD COUNTY ERECT!



Thad. Stevens Repudiated!

A DEMOCRATIC GAIN OF 108 SINCE LAST YEAR!

THE WHOLE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET ELECTED!

CLYMER'S MAJORITY, 244!

A Reserve Corps of 250 Votes!

John Cessna quits Bragging and the "Bedford Inquirer" makes another Calculation!

That "Same Old 'Coon" Hunts a Hole!

The Orators at the Negro Pic Nic Go up Shover's Run, where they hope to find genial companions among the "Culled Brudders!"

Hurrah for our Bully Democracy!

The election in this county passed off very quietly, but an unusually heavy vote was polled. The Democrats increased their vote from 2567, last year, to 2835, being a gain of 268. The opposition increased their vote from 2431 last year, to 2591, showing, on the whole, a Democratic gain of 108. Considering the tremendous effort made by the enemy to carry the county, this result is most gratifying to the Democracy. It was the boast of the Radical leaders in this borough that they would carry the county, and they even published a table furnished by their shrewdest calculators which gave them 148 majority. Of course, much of this was brag, for the purpose of keeping up the spirits of their friends in the county, whom they have so often deceived with false predictions about carrying the county, that an extraordinary effort was necessary, this time, to make them swallow the same old dose over again. It is well known, too, that John Cessna exerted himself to his utmost to defeat O. E. Shannon, Esq., the Democratic candidate for Prothonotary, and to this end money was made to flow like water. At least $2,000 were spent to accomplish this object, but the brave and incorruptible Democracy could be neither frightened nor bought into a desertion of their candidate. Again, in every district in which the Radicals had control of the election-boards, Democrats were disfranchised on the ground that they were "deserters." In this way at least 125 Democratic votes were lost. Yet, despite all these untoward circumstances, we have increased our majority 108 votes over that of last year, elected every man on our county ticket, and gave the district ticket a handsome gain over the majority for Mr. Clymer. This result has knocked the bottom out of the hopes of the Radicals of this county. They acknowledge that Bedford county is permanently and reliably Democratic. They know that we have a reserve vote of 250, that can be polled in future, for the "Deserter" law will not operate hereafter and the money of the Union League is pretty nearly spent. In short, there never was a brighter prospect ahead for the Democracy of Bedford county. With proper work, our majority can be increased to 600, next year, and when that point is reached we shall soon be able to overcome the Radical majority in Somerset. Let us, therefore, take fresh courage, and labor with renewed zeal for the success of that cause which must triumph in the end, come what may.

THE STATE OF SOUTHAMPTON.

"What do you think of Southampton?" "Did you hear from Southampton?" Such were the questions asked on all sides on the night of the election. Yes, we heard from Southampton and we think well of Southampton. Last year it gave us 138 majority, this year 181, a gain of 45! Well done, Southampton, glorious Southampton! The fact is that Southampton is a State, a little State, all by itself, and it can just give as much Democratic majority as it pleases. Whenever the enemy threaten to carry the county, Southampton comes to the rescue and routs them "horse, foot and dragoons." But like a prudent general, Southampton always keeps a force in reserve. There are 270 Democratic votes in Southampton, and whenever they are needed they will be polled. This year there were but 239 polled. Had every vote been out, we would have had 212 majority. But Southampton is the banner township, this year, and we say all honor to the State of Southampton.

THE RESULT IN THE STATE!

Geary Elected Governor!

A Democratic Gain of 9,000!!

The President Endorsed!

The election in this State has resulted in the choice of John W. Geary for Governor, by a majority of 13,500—showing a Democratic gain since last year of 9,000 votes. This is a cheering sign, and will inspire the Democracy with renewed hope and energy in their struggle for the redemption of the country from the misrule of Radicalism. Another such a charge upon the enemy's works, as that we have just made, and our flag will float in triumph from their very citadel. Our noble standard-bearer, Hiester Clymer, made a gallant fight, and if the blow he gave the Radical Disunionists be vigorously followed up, by next year the Keystone State will be redeemed. So, up and at them again!

"We'll pitch our tent on this camp-ground,
And give the devil another round!"

The returns are as follows; those for Bradford, Lawrence, Huntington, Indiana, Tioga and Washington being reported, the rest official, and no returns from Butler, Cameron, Forest, Elk and Sullivan, which give Clymer about 550 majority.

GAINS AND LOSSES.

The following is a comparative statement of the Democratic gains and losses, in the several districts of this county, as compared with last year:

	GAIN.	LOSS.
Bedford Bor.	6
Bedford tp.,		22
Bloody Run,	6
Broad Top,	26
Colerain,	9
C. Valley,	16
Harrison,	6
Hopewell,	3
Juniata,		4
Liberty,		3

Prov. W.,	1

St. Clair,	6
Southampton,	43
Union,	5
Woodberry M.,	9
Woodberry S.,	9
	177	69
	69
Net gain,	108

Juniata did very well, the small reduction of her majority having been caused by removals from the township. Harrison also did nobly, a number of her voters having been disfranchised by the Radical board. Colerain did excellently, having lost many of her Democrats by death and removal, yet gaining 9 on her majority of last year. Old St. Clair, also, pulled up strong, polling more than her quota of the 3,000 Democrats in the county. Union and the two Woodberries contended against great odds, but came out with handsome gains, whilst Broad Top and Hopewell also did their whole duty, the former gaining large y over last year. Bloody Run did very well, and West Providence held the enemy gallantly at bay. Little Londonderry came out with colors flying, and ranks next to Southampton in her gains. The "headless horseman" played the devil in East Providence, but Cumberland Valley fired up and pretty nearly wiped out the Radical gain of her old rival. Liberty and Schellsburg lost a few by removals, and Bedford tp. failed to come up to the scratch. Monroe held her own, and on the whole the Radicals have been terribly routed.

A CLOSE CALCULATION.

How the People are Deceived.

It was the dodge of the Radical politicians, during the recent campaign, to blow and brag at the top of their bent, in order to keep their men up to the work. They claimed the State by 50,000 majority, offered to bet on 35,000, and hereabouts they claimed the county—John Cessna and others proclaiming that they had the vote already counted, and that Geary would have 150 majority in old Bedford. This kind of lying made their adherents work till their nails turned blue, for they would have spoiled their best linen if they could only carry the county. Now, these dupes of Cessna & Co. can see how they have been fooled. They can see, too, how much that calculation published in the Bedford Inquirer of October 5th, was worth. Just look at it. Clymer's majorities are set down as follows: C. Valley 95, (short 26;) Colerain 52, (short 31;) Londonderry 15, (short 28;) Liberty 5, (short 17;) Napier 30, (short 23;) Southampton 125, (short 56;) Snake Spring 5, (short 12.) Geary's majorities: Bedford borough 5, (Clymer has 10;) Bloody Run 56, (is 43;) Broad Top 95, (is 53;) Harrison 10, (Clymer has 1;) Hopewell 70, (is 59;) Monroe 66, (is 50;) Providence, E., 125, (is 146;) St. Clair 19, (Clymer has 37;) Union 40, (is 18;) M. Woodberry 100, (is 74;) S. Woodberry 36, (is 15.) Bedford tp., Coaldale, Juniata, Schellsburg and W. Providence are the only districts in which this calculation approximated correctness. The remainder show an error of upwards of 400 votes. Who will be fooled next time?

HON. J. McD. SHARPE.

Our excellent candidate for Congress, Mr. Sharpe, though defeated, made a gallant fight. He leads his ticket in Adams, Bedford, Franklin and Fulton. Under ordinary circumstances, he would have been elected by at least 500 majority. But money and misrepresentation carried the day, and no man could have resisted, with success, these potent influences. Our opponents sometimes make flings at the supposed ignorance of foreign-born citizens; but what is to be said of the gross mental blindness of a class of men in their own ranks who never vote except when they are frightened to the election by such silly stories as that the Democrats intend to repudiate the Federal debt and assume the debt of the late Southern Confederacy!! At least 1,000 of these beautiful specimens of "Radical" intelligence, who haven't voted for ten years, were brought out to vote against Mr. Sharpe, by this "cock and bull story" invented for the occasion. When they find out how they have been fooled they will feel a good deal worse than the men they helped to defeat. We hope they can sleep without dreaming about losing their U. S. Bonds.

O. E. SHANNON, ESQ.

The most violent and desperate efforts were made by the Radicals of this county to defeat Mr. Shannon, the Democratic candidate for Prothonotary. His political record was misrepresented, his conduct as an officer assailed, nay, his very acts of charity perverted, in order to consummate his defeat. Money, too, was lavishly expended in the interest of his opponent, whilst all the trickery and juggiery of the electioneering art were resorted to for the purpose of running him behind his ticket. But, notwithstanding all this, Mr. Shannon has been elected by an overwhelming vote, by a majority that teaches all who would strike down a regularly nominated Democratic candidate in this county, that they might as well spare themselves the pains of trying. We do not charge Esq. Lingenfelter with what we have said above, as to the manner in which Mr. Shannon's enemies sought to defeat him; those to whom we refer will understand well enough whom we mean. In conclusion, we congratulate Mr. Shannon upon his success, for few men could have made such a run with so great odds against him. As for poor Cessna, we pity him, but he ought to know by this time that it is "hard to kick against the pricks!"

REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT.

The following is the vote for Members of the Legislature in this district:

	Findlay, D.	Filler, J. R.
Bedford,	2846	2839
Fulton,	1069	1062
Somerset,	1811	1726
	5726	5627
	Weller, R.	Richards, R.
Bedford,	2565	2553
Fulton,	756	758
Somerset,	3073	3002
	6394	6313

We have not received the official returns of this Congressional District, but Mr. Sharpe is beaten about 600. Adams, Bedford and Fulton give about 825 maj. for Sharpe, and Somerset and Franklin give upwards of 1400 for Koontz.

SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

The vote for Senator in this district is as follows:

	Meyers, D.	Stutzman, R.
Bedford,	2864	2553
Fulton,	1070	759
Somerset,	1732	3096
	5666	6408
		5666
Stutzman's maj.		742

—We have no comment to make upon the above, but we return our thanks to our friends, Democrats and Republicans, who favored us with their support. As Geary's majority in the district is 779, and considering that we didn't deliver a eulogy on Booth, we feel rather proud of our "run." We feel especially grateful to the people of Bedford county, and particularly to our own immediate neighbors for the endorsement they have given us. For instance, Bedford borough, Clymer 10 majority, Meyers 49; Bedford tp., Clymer 88, Meyers 101; Bedford county, Clymer 244, Meyers 311. Who would not feel proud of such friends? Fulton county, too, did her duty. In fact she is the banner county in the Senatorial and Congressional districts. All honor to her noble Democracy! As for Somerset—well, we can't do justice to the subject.

COL. JOHN H. FILLER.

The majority for Col. Filler in this county is 286 over Richards, and 274 over Weller, leading Clymer 42 on Richards, and 30 on Weller. This is a splendid endorsement of the course pursued by Col. Filler. It is the verdict of the people, "Well done, we stand by you in your manly and magnanimous position." Who would not to-day rather range himself by the side of this gallant soldier, who fought and suffered for the Union, and sustain him as he lifts his voice for re-union and peace, than to be found alongside of the howling dervishes and canting demagogues who, for the sake of place and power, appeal to the meanest prejudices and foulest passions of the human heart? The right-thinking, true-hearted men of the "Republican" party will soon stand where Col. Filler has taken position, and then Bedford county will repudiate, with an overwhelming vote, the diabolism of the leaders of the Radical party.

25,000 VOTERS DISFRANCHISED!

Geary is indebted for his election to the infamous "deserter" law, under the operation of which from 25,000 to 30,000 Democrats were disfranchised. 60,000 names appeared upon the Lists of Deserters printed by the Adjutant General. One half of these are "Republicans" and were permitted to vote by Democratic as well as "Republican" boards. But not one Democrat whose name was found upon those lists was permitted to vote by "Republican" boards. Our own county can furnish sufficient evidence on this subject. Of course this business will be tested in the courts.

SOLDIERS' FRIENDS.

The soldiers of the county can now see who are their real friends. The programme laid down by President Johnson's administration, in the matter of appointments to office, is as follows: 1. A Republican Soldier, favorable to President Johnson's policy; 2. A Johnson Republican; 3. A Democratic Soldier; 4. A Democrat. Thus it will be seen that the soldiers of both parties are preferred in appointments to office. Was it so under Radical rule?

THERE is a Federal Assessor in East Providence township, who imagines his "head off," and who presumed it the duty of his official ghost, in advance of his decapitation, to ride from house to house and frighten the people of that township out of their homes on election day. The "headless horseman" must be a terrible spectre to the yeomanry of E. Providence, that he can scare them so completely out of their propriety. Bah! For shame! To let a man without a head frighten and rule you!

COL. JOHN H. FILLER addressed a very large meeting of the people, in front of the Court House, on Monday evening, Oct. 8. He made a very sound conservative speech, giving the Radicals some forty-pounders right through their stomachs.

BRUTAL.—Thad. Stevens in a speech the other day referred in the following brutal language to Mr. Seward:

"The elder clown, owing to the wear and tear of age and suffering—you know he had his arm broken, and his jaw broken, and his neck broken almost—inducing a necessity for certain opiates, which had very much worn down his vigor."

This mode of dealing with political opponents no doubt is deemed exceedingly effective by a certain class. But surely no one who aims to think independently and to act honestly can help deploring, deeply and sadly, that party advocates should find audiences, either great or small, either ignorant or intelligent, that could tolerate such a style of warfare. It is grossly insulting to the whole community.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

Day of Thanksgiving Appointed.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The following proclamation has just been issued by the President of the United States.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has been pleased to vouchafe to us as a people, another year of that national life, which is an indispensable condition of peace, security and progress. That year has moreover been crowned with many peculiar blessings. The civil war that so recently closed among us has not been anywhere reopened. Foreign intervention has ceased to excite alarm or apprehension. Intrusive pestilence has been benignly mitigated. Domestic tranquility has improved. Sentiments of conciliation have largely prevailed, and the affections of loyalty and patriotism have been widely received. Our fields have yielded quite abundantly. Our mining industry has been richly rewarded, and we have been allowed to extend our railroad system far into the interior recesses of the country; while our commerce has resumed its customary activity in foreign seas.

These great national blessings demand a national acknowledgment.

Now, therefore I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend that Thursday, the 29th day of November next, be set apart and observed everywhere in the several States and Territories of the United States, by the people thereof, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, with due remembrance that "in His temple doth every man speak of His honor."

I recommend also, that on the same solemn occasion they do humbly and devoutly implore Him to grant to our national councils, and to our whole people, that Divine wisdom which alone can lead any nation into the ways of all good.

In offering these national thanksgivings, praises and supplications, we have the Divine assurance that "the Lord remaineth a King forever; them that are weak shall be guided in judgment, and such as are gentle shall He learn His way. The Lord shall give strength to His people, and the Lord shall give to His people the blessings of peace."

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this, the 8th of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and of the Independence of the United States, the ninety-first.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President.
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

HOW THE RADICALS ELECTED THEIR CONGRESSMEN.

Many of our readers who are not in the habit of paying particular attention to the figures to be found in an election return will marvel at the apparent endorsement by the people of such Congressmen as O'Neill, Kelly and Myers; but a little examination affords a perfect explanation of the affair. We stated for several days previous to the election that the Radicals were colonizing voters extensively into the doubtful districts, and here is the proof of the fact. In 1865 the vote cast in the First Congressional District was 23,504; on Tuesday last it was but 19,581, showing a decrease of 3,923 votes. No candid man will allege that there is any falling off of population in that district, and all agree that the entire vote on both sides was brought out all over the city. Where then did this vote go to? Mr. Randall's majority on a poll of less than twenty thousand is 4,683, whilst in 1865, in a poll three thousand five hundred and four greater, the majority in his district was but 2,428.

These facts show clearly that a large portion of the vote of the district was transferred and that the transferred vote was altogether Radical. Let us see what became of it. In 1865 there were 18,601 votes cast in the Second congressional district, and on that small poll Mr. O'Neill's party had a majority of over 4,000. On Tuesday last there were 21,184 votes given, and in this large poll the same gentleman's majority was but 3,324. Two facts are shown in both these cases; first that Randall, with a smaller vote cast, was more largely endorsed than ever before, and that O'Neill, with a poll over 1,500 greater, was endorsed by a majority of 1,500 less than in 1865. The Radical Congress, therefore, is not endorsed in this case.

But let us look at the Third district. In 1865 the vote polled was 20,930; on Tuesday last it was 23,951, an increase of 3021. In 1865 Mr. Myers' party had a majority of 1,558; on Tuesday he was re-elected by a majority of 1,085; thus showing that if there had not been three thousand votes colonized into his district he would have been badly beaten, and that with the colonization his conduct is approved by nearly five hundred less than he was in 1865. Now let us take the Fourth district. In 1865 there were 22,228 votes cast in that district; on Tuesday there were 27,601 votes polled. In 1865 Mr. Kelley's party had a majority of 4,958, but on Tuesday the champion of negro suffrage was re-elected by a majority of 2,453. Kelly, therefore, is absolutely condemned by the legal vote of his district. There is no doubt about the system of colonization adopted and pursued by the Radicals, and it is perfectly clear to every man who will examine the subject carefully, that their candidates for Congress are all returned as elected through the operation of a huge fraud. CONGRESS WAS NOT ENDORSED IN PHILADELPHIA.—Philadelphia News.

AN ELECTION FARCE.—Yesterday the form of a popular election was gone through in Baltimore. In theory, a free people was engaged in an act of self-government, and a stranger in our midst might have wondered at, and probably have applauded, the quiet working of democratic systems and republican institutions. In point of fact, an insignificant minority here, backed by the authorities and an armed police, who were installed in power by the bayonets of the Federal Government, held the ballot-boxes in their own hands and arbitrarily excluded from all the privileges of citizenship those who had ventured in the past five years to entertain political opinions different from those advocated by the dominant faction. Some five or six years ago the voting population of Baltimore numbered some thirty-five thousand. Yesterday there were but seven thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine votes cast, of which five thousand four hundred and five were given the ultra Radical candidate, Mr. J. L. Chapman, who is thus made Mayor of a city containing over three hundred thousand inhabitants. We refer our readers to our local columns for the results of the proceeding. We refer them to the Baltimore American for appropriate comments on the glory, the beauty and the freedom of free, republican institutions.—Baltimore Gazette.

IT has been positively stated that Robert Lincoln is strongly in favor of President Johnson's policy, and that both he and his mother declare that policy to be the same which Mr. Lincoln designed to carry out, and upon which he had already commenced at the time of his murder.

Horrible Indian Outrages Discovered---Ransom of the Surviving Victims.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11.—Capt. Barlow, of Gen. Sherman's staff, arrived here yesterday from Fort Dodge, where he saw two white girls, named Doye, one seventeen and the other thirteen years old, who had been ransomed from the Kiowa Indians. The girls state that on the 27th of August the Kiowas attacked their home in Northwestern Texas, killed, scalped and burned their father; themselves and mother, and sister, eight years old, were carried into captivity and treated in the cruelest and most revolting manner. On arriving at the Indian camp, the captives were knocked about with clubs, and brutally abused. On hearing their condition, the commanding officer at Ft. Dodge, not having sufficient force to rescue them, effected their ransom, and will send them to their friends in Texas, as soon as they recover from their terrible sufferings. While in the Indian camp, the officer sent to arrange their ransom saw the captives knocked down three times and violated.

—Forney, in one of his Pennsylvania speeches, says that the President was complimentary when he classed him among the species of defunct ornithology. He may, says the Boston Post, have complimented Forney, but we are inclined to the opinion that he was unnecessarily severe on the ducks.

ASTHMA CURED.- Wm. May, of 245 Spring st., New York, writes, Jan'y 1, 1856: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock s, and urged me to use it I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years.

A HUMBUG.—How often we hear this expression from persons reading advertisements of patent medicines, and in nine cases out of ten they may be right. It is over 19 years since I introduced my medicine, the VENETIAN LINIMENT, to the public. I had no money to advertise it, so I left it for sale with a few druggists and storekeepers through a small section of the country, many taking it with great reluctance; but I told them to let any one have it, and if it did not do all I stated on my pamphlet, no one need pay for it. In some stores two or three bottles were taken on trial by persons present. I was, by many, thought crazy, and that would be the last they would see of me. But I knew my medicine was no humbug. In about two months I began to receive orders for more Liniment, some calling it my valuable Liniment, who had refused to sign a receipt when I left it at their store. Now my sales are millions of bottles yearly, and all for cash. I warrant it superior to any other medicine for the cure of Croup, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Vomiting, Spasms, and Sea-sickness, as an internal remedy. It is perfectly innocent to take internally (see oath accompanying each bottle) and externally for Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Mumps, Frosted Feet, Bruises, Sprains, Old Sores, Swellings, Sore Throats, &c. Sold by all the druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. oct19w7

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyle, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC, and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption, for his days of visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED.—Two or three two-horse loads of Pine Wood, also several loads of Oak and Hickory, will be taken in payment for subscription to the BEDFORD GAZETTE. We would be much obliged to our friends if they would attend to this matter as soon as possible.

SUPPER TO THE DEMOCRATIC BRASS BAND.—On Monday evening, Oct. 8, mine host of the Mengel House, gave an entertainment to the Democratic Brass Band, which was duly discussed and appreciated by the members of the band, and their friends. It was really comme il faut. Ike and his accomplished lady know how to get up good suppers.

JUVENILE CONCERT.—Mr. R. A. McClure, of Chambersburg, who has been engaged for some time past as a teacher of vocal music in the Normal School, gave several concerts by juvenilesingers, during the past week, which were of a very entertaining character. Mr. McClure is an excellent teacher of vocal music and deserves great credit for his pains-taking as a teacher as well as his talent as a musician.

SORGHUM FREE OF TAX.—The Internal Revenue Commissioner, in reply to inquiries whether there is any internal duty on the products of sorghum, replies that molasses and sugar made from sorghum or imphee, are, and have been since the passage of the act of March 3d, 1865, exempt from duty.

CAUTION.—As cold weather is approaching, fires will soon be required. It is a wise precaution to now make a thorough investigation of your stovepipes, flues and chimneys, and see that they are both clear and secure. If they are not, make them so at once.

SPECIAL attention of Merchants and others is invited to Card, in this issue, of Howell & Bourke, Manufacturers of Wall Papers, etc., etc.

THE LATEST FASHIONS.—Since the invention and introduction of the celebrated Duplex Elliptic (or double) Spring Hoop Skirt by Mr. J. W. Bradley of New York, the ladies throughout the country have given up the idea of discarding the fashion of wearing hoop skirts on account of the peculiar and graceful manner in which the Duplex Skirts adapt themselves to every exigency and emergency. So generally acceptable have these Skirts become, that the ladies regard them as a special favorite in view of the superior flexibility, lightness and durability combined in their manufacture. They also consider them a far more economical and comfortable Hoop Skirt than ever has or can be made for all crowded assemblages, for the promenade or house dress. Any lady after wearing one of these Skirts will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. Long experience in the manufacture of hoop skirts has proven to the proprietors of this invention that single springs will always retain that stiff, unyielding and bungling style which has ever characterised them, whereas the double spring hoop or the Duplex Elliptic, will be found free from these objections. Notwithstanding the ability of the manufacturers, Messrs. Wests', Bradley & Cary, to turn out over six thousand Skirts per day from their large manufactories in New York, they feel obliged to request all merchants ordering the Duplex Elliptic Skirts, to send their orders a few days before they are wanted, if possible, as they are always most constantly oversold some days ahead.

SIMPLE MODE OF COMPUTING INTEREST.—A new method of computing interest on any number of dollars at six per cent., appears very simple. Multiply any given number of dollars by the number of days of interest desired, separate the right hand figure and divide by six, the result is the true interest of such sum for such number of days at six per cent. This rule is so simple and so true, according to all business usages, that every banker, broker, merchant or clerk should post up this for reference and use. There being no such thing as a fraction in-it, there is scarcely any liability to err or mistake. By no other mathematical process can the desired information be obtained with so few figures.

"A LITTLE MORE CIDER."—The question is often asked, "How can we preserve our cider, so that in the dead of winter when gathered 'round the hearth stone, we can give our friends fresh cider?" A knowing one answers the question thus: "Go to Lewis' Drug Store, procure a bottle of Sulphite of Lime, which will keep cider fresh and sweet." Try it.

Do not be deceived. No foreign perfumes can be imported for sale at the present rate of duty. Vile imitations of them are imposed upon the credulous. Phalon's "Night Blooming Cereus" stands alone, unapproached, incomparable; the most popular floral extract in existence, and far ahead of anything of the kind that Europe has ever produced. Sold by druggists everywhere.

VILLAGE CAMP MEETING.—There will be a village Camp Meeting held in the M. E. Church, in Bloody Run, commencing Friday evening, Nov. 23. Preaching three times a day, viz: 10 A. M., 3 P. M., and at night. Rev. Thos. Barnhart, Presiding Elder, and other distinguished clergymen are expected to be present.

EYRE & LANDELL, 4th and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, have completed their Improvement, and are now offering their usual display of Dry Goods to purchasers. Read advertisement.

From tropic flowers that scent the moonlit glade, Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus" is made.

Phalon & Son, manufacturers, N. Y. Sold everywhere.

DIED.

FETTER—In Pleasant Valley, this county, on the 8th inst., Mrs. Rebecca Fetter, aged 77 years, 6 months and 11 days.

This aged mother was for many years a consistent and exemplary member of the Lutheran Church. Her kindness, charity, and many other Christian virtues endeared her to all who knew her, whilst her liberal hand, encouraging words, and cheering smiles will be missed by many—especially by the poor and afflicted. We have reason to believe that our loss is her eternal gain, for without the contortion of a single muscle, she calmly fell asleep in Jesus.

WERTZ—On the morning of the 10th inst., in Cumberland Valley, Pa., Mrs. Diana Wertz, wife of Nicholas Wertz, aged 67 years.

Mrs. Wertz was as well as usual, and was doing her morning work, when she went into the yard, and in returning, fell, and expired in less than one hour. In her death, we have lost an affectionate mother and a sympathizing friend. D. R. A.

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF THE AMERICAN WATCHES, MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.
In consequence of the recent great improvements in our manufacturing facilities, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed
WITH GOLD AT PAR,
so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years, and the manufacture and sale of
MORE THAN 200,000 WATCHES, have given our productions the very highest rank among time keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen. We are fully justified in saying that we now make more than
ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES
sold in the United States. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade-marks on the plate:
1. "American Watch Co." Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co." Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett." Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. Our LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co." Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.
The AMERICAN WATCH CO. of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, ALL the products of their Factory are FULLY WARRANTED to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this guarantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may be always exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham, are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single Watches.
CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND J. W. BRADLEY'S CELEBRATED PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double spring, but twice (or double) covered, preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for
J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,
WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.

MISHLER'S BITTERS WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st, Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it sets on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but ranking bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d, Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:

A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

In will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

THE NEW YORK NEWS,

The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,

DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he entertain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar., 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now be ore the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, str
